The Academic Excellence Prizes are aimed at students with the best academic records. These prizes cover 100% of tuition fees for an academic year.

In the first year, Fundació ESADE may grant up to:
- 6 prizes to students in the Bachelor in Business Administration (BBA) programme
- 10 prizes in the Bachelor in Law programme
- 3 prizes in the Double Degree in Business Administration and Law programme.

To apply for this prize, students need to have a university admissions score of 9.5 or higher, regardless of the specific phase.

In the remaining years in the above programmes, one prize is granted to the student with the best academic record.

1. REQUIREMENTS AND DOCUMENTATION

Candidates for this Fundació ESADE prize:

- Have to be currently registered in the Bachelor in Business Administration (BBA) programme, the Bachelor in Law programme or the Double Degree in Business Administration and Law programme.
- First-year students have to have obtained a university admissions score of 9.5 or higher, regardless of the specific phase, and must present their application within the established deadline.
- Students in the remaining years do not have to present an application. Programme Management will notify prize recipients within the timeline established herein.
