General information – Scholarships application process

All candidates are eligible to apply for financial aid to assist with their educational expenses. In order to ensure that financial aid from ESADE is available as soon as they are admitted. We encourage candidates to begin the Scholarship Application submission when they apply for Admission.

Each candidate may only apply to one scholarship. Our suggestion is sending the Scholarship Application Form together with their admissions application supporting documents, so that they will be able to better estimate their financial needs and complete the Financing Plan Form accordingly.

Eligibility for Scholarships is always based on merit, and in many cases, also financial need could be taken into account.
