

Position Announcement
Tenure-Track Faculty Position¹ in International Business
(Department of Business Policy)

ESADE Business School seeks to appoint a faculty member at assistant professor level with a strong background in international business and strategy (competitive and corporate). The appointment of full-time professor in the Department of Business Policy will be effective in September 2013.

The successful candidate will contribute to both theoretical and applied aspects of the department's research and will have an active research agenda. The applicant is expected to play an active role in both our undergraduate courses (Bachelor in Business Administration) and graduate courses (MBA and Ph.D. programs).

The candidate should have a Ph.D. in the area, and possess outstanding research and teaching qualifications. Possible areas are: international business, competitive strategy and corporate strategy.

The Department of Business Policy at ESADE (<http://www.esade.edu>) is a young and dynamic group with close collaborative research links with industry and top European and US academic institutions. The successful candidate will play a key role in developing further the research-driven postgraduate programs in this area and in disseminating research results through publications, conferences and teaching.

ESADE is a member of Ramon Llull University and has facilities in Madrid and Barcelona. It runs a wide range of business courses at degree and postgraduate levels in Spanish and English in Europe and Latin America. ESADE has co-operation agreements with many top universities around the globe.

Since its founding over 50 years ago, ESADE has built an international reputation based on the innovative curriculum of its educational programs as well as for contributing relevant, high quality research to the academic community. ESADE holds the three most prestigious business school accreditations, EQUIS, AACSB and AMBA, and has consistently been ranked as one of the best business schools in the world.

The innovative and entrepreneurial spirit that has characterized ESADE Business School from its inception is as strong as ever. Moreover, ESADE is committed to excellence and strives to further internationalize its faculty and expand its research activity. This is reflected in its strong commitment to strengthening its Department of Business Policy with internationally-recognized research-oriented faculty in the next few years.

The salary for this position will be competitive. On top of the gross salary, assistance will be given towards the cost of relocation. Speaking Spanish is not a requirement. For non Spanish-speaking candidates support in learning Spanish will be provided by ESADE Language School.

¹ ESADE Business School is an affirmative action / equal opportunity employer

Informal enquiries, which will be treated in strict confidence, can be addressed to Xavier Mendoza Associate Professor of the Department of Business Policy of ESADE (xavier.mendoza@esade.edu) and Luis Vives also Associate Professor of the Department (luis.vives@esade.edu).

Formal applicants should send:

- Curriculum vitae
- A letter describing their research and teaching
- Two or three recent publications
- Materials documenting their university teaching
- Three letters of reference

All this information should be sent to Silvia Espin, Manager for Faculty Development at ESADE Business School, either by e-mail (facultypositions@esade.edu) or by mail to:

ESADE Business School
Avenida Pedralbes 60-62
E-08034 Barcelona (Spain)

The committee will begin reviewing applications in July 2012 and will continue until the position is filled. Materials submitted as part of an application cannot be returned.