Position Announcement

Faculty Position in Corporate Social Responsibility, Environmental Sustainability and/or Business and Society

Department of Social Sciences

ESADE Business School seeks to appoint a faculty member at Assistant or Associate professor level in the areas of Corporate Social Responsibility, Environmental Sustainability and/or Business and Society. The successful candidate is expected to join ESADE in September 2016.

Candidates should have a PhD and possess a proven record of research and scholarship in the areas announced and/or show a clear potential and motivation to publish in high quality journals. Excellent teaching skills are expected, since she/he should be able to teach mandatory courses on business and society, as well as elective courses, in our Master of Science, MBA and Executive Education programs. She/he should also be able to work along with PhD students.

The Department of Social Sciences at ESADE is a lively academic group, including professors teaching and doing research in sociology, ethics, CSR, sustainability, corporate political activity, and geopolitics. The Department has close links with European and US academic institutions and its members participate in international research projects.

In addition to the Department of Social Sciences, the successful candidate will be affiliated to the Institute for Social Innovation. The mission of the Institute is to create and disseminate knowledge to develop the capabilities of people and organizations in business and non-profit sectors that contribute to a fairer, more sustainable world through their own activities. For further information about the Institute for Social Innovation please visit the website www.esade.edu/research/eng/socialinnovation.

ESADE comprises a business school and a law school, currently spread across three campuses: Barcelona, Sant Cugat del Vallès and Madrid. In turn, ESADE is a member of the Ramon Llull University. The school’s official mission is “to educate highly-professional individuals aware of their responsibilities as national and global citizens, sensitive to issues of solidarity and social justice and keen to engage in collective projects.” Its tagline is “inspiring futures.”

It runs a wide range of business courses at degree and postgraduate levels in Spanish and English in Europe and Latin America. ESADE has co-operation agreements with many top universities around the globe and offers a wide range of programs in all branches of Business Administration and Law.

The salary for this position will be competitive. On top of the gross salary, assistance will be given towards the cost of relocation. It is not a requirement to speak Spanish, as the school is fully international. For non Spanish-speaking candidates, however, support is provided to learn the language if desired.

www.esade.edu
Interested parties should send:

- A cover letter providing a brief introduction and personal statement
- A current CV
- Two recent publications
- The names and contact details of three people who have agreed to act as possible referees
- Any other material (evidence of teaching excellence, etc.) that can help the selection committee judge the application.

Please send your materials in electronic format to Monica Buqueras, manager for faculty development at facultypositions@esade.edu.

Applications will be accepted until November 15.