Immersion Week
FULL TIME MBA · CLASS OF 2010

ESADE Business School
Ramon Llull University
We are pleased that having evaluated other potential business schools, you have decided to embark on this challenging journey with us. Over the next 18 months you will be constantly pushing your limits and discovering new competencies that you may not have realised you had. Our rigorous MBA programme will help you develop the necessary hard and soft business skills you will need to be successful international managers. While prioritising your workload and adapting to tight deadlines during the MBA, it will be easy to sometimes lose sight of the reasons that brought you here – to advance or change your career!

Our experience demonstrates that the probability of fulfilling your professional ambitions increases through focused job search strategies that are developed and implemented early on. As internships are requisite entry channels into certain companies and sectors, you can expect to start interviewing as early as this October!

Throughout the MBA programme, the Career Services team will help you define your professional objectives and support you in your career search. Immersion Week has been designed upfront to give you an overview of the MBA career opportunities available so you can start thinking about what you would like to do after you graduate. As one of the advantages of having comparatively few MBA participants, your Career Advisor will be able to provide you with personalised service throughout your time at ESADE Business School.

Please make the most of the services and accessibility we offer by integrating us in your job search process and keeping us up-to-date with developments.

We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Camila de Wit

Services & Activities

Although working as an integrated service, the services team can be divided into three main areas: Advice & Guidance, The Career Resource Centre (CRC) and Employer Relations.

Advice & Guidance

_Readily available to provide students with personalised attention, the Advice & Guidance team helps candidates develop and meet their professional goals and has designed the Career Management Programme to do just that._

_The Career Management Programme (CMP)_

Through a mix of individual and group activities, the CMP’s aim is to help MBA students set clear career objectives, understand market opportunities, develop and implement a tailored job search strategy and gain the necessary skills to manage their long term careers. Bringing headhunters, recruiting and market experts on-campus, the CMP consists of various orientation meetings, strategy sessions, seminars and workshops to guide students through every step of the job search process, from identifying one’s interests, strengths and weaknesses, to analysing opportunities and negotiating job offers.

The Career Resource Centre (CRC)

_The CRC provides participants in the MBA programme with the tools to manage their short and long-term careers. With leading and up-to-date resources, the CRC plays a central role in the internship/job search process helping candidates identify and capitalise on interesting opportunities. The CRC continues to grow and houses databases to perform industry research, trade directories to find specific company information and an extensive library covering all career development aspects, amongst many other valuable resources._

_Job Portal_

While many of the CRC’s resources are available on-line, students can also efficiently manage their internship/job search and applications through the MBA student portal, where companies regularly post offers.

Talent Recruitment Events
Throughout the academic year, Career Services strategically organizes Talent Recruitment Events, adapted to industry recruiting timelines, to facilitate interaction between employers and MBA candidates. Companies from all the main industries use the events to communicate career opportunities, taking advantage of the on-campus presence to begin interview processes.

Fall MBA Career Week (October)
As one of the main on-campus recruiting events, this 3-day event primarily focuses on international companies in banking, consultancy and industry who have early job & internship applications deadlines.

Winter MBA Career Week (January)
Attracting multinational companies across all main industries, the event enables MBA participants to interact with leading employers from Spain and around the world.

Corporate Presentations (All year round)
Aside from the above events, Corporate Presentations are an effective channel for Senior Managers, recruiters and recent hires to communicate with our MBA students on-campus.

Networking Events (All year round)
Companies opting for a more informal outreach towards students, whether on- or off-campus, also host breakfasts, lunches, cocktails or dinners as well as other events such as case study practices.

On-campus Interviews (All year round)
Modern installations are available free of charge for on-campus interviews whether face to face, by telephone or videoconference.

Corporate Internships & Projects
Career Services strongly recommends 18-month MBA students to make the most of the 10-12 week summer break through corporate internships or projects. These not only enable you to implement the skills learned during the MBA, but also represent a unique opportunity for you to gain experience in new companies, functions, sectors and/or countries as well as networking with a potential future employer.

Internships can be extended on a part time basis from October onwards of the second year providing they are located in Barcelona or cities where ESADE Business School has exchange agreements.

Career Services’ Employer Relations team is in constant contact with the international business community and frequently travels to develop and nurture relationships as well as promote class profiles. In 2007, Career Services managed 2,500 MBA internship and senior job offers from 1,500 companies in over 30 countries.
