ESADE’s PhD in Management is seeking applications for its September 2016 intake. ESADE offers a range of scholarships that cover fees and living expenses. Our program prepares students to contribute to management research and disseminate cutting edge knowledge to managers and organizations. Students are initially registered as MRes, which comprises the specialized research coursework of the PhD.

Areas of specialization include: Strategy and Entrepreneurship, Social Innovation, Organizational Behavior, Operations, Marketing, Innovation & Data Sciences and Financial Management and Control

Eligibility for the Program:
- All applicants must have a Bachelor’s degree or Master from an accredited university.
- Work experience / graduate degrees are not required for admission.
- There is no preference for a degree subject area. In some areas you will be expected to have strong quantitative skills.
- Your objective must be to pursue a career in business academia as a researcher and professor in an international institution.

Scholarship and Living Stipend
Scholarships cover the whole amount of the tuition fees: 15400 € for the first year and 13500 € per year for the subsequent years. In addition the schools offers some stipends to cover living expenses during the program. Access to first year scholarships and stipends is competitive for the first year (MRes) and automatic for the subsequent years upon satisfactory progress in the program.
