ESADE Business School is seeking to appoint a faculty member at assistant (tenure track) or associate professor level. Candidates with research and teaching interests in Macroeconomics, International Macroeconomics and Finance, or Industrial Organization are particularly encouraged to apply. The position is for a full-time faculty member in the Department of Economics beginning September 2011.

The candidate should have a PhD degree in Economics and possess outstanding research and teaching qualifications. The successful candidate will have an active research agenda and will enhance the department's research portfolio by publishing in internationally recognized journals. The applicant is also expected to play an active role in the undergraduate (BBA) and graduate programmes (MA, MBA, PhD).

ESADE is a member of the Universitat Ramon Llull and has facilities in Madrid and Barcelona. It runs a wide range of business courses at degree and postgraduate levels in Spanish and English in Europe and Latin America. ESADE has co-operation agreements with many top universities around the globe and offers a wide range of programmes in all branches of Business Administration and Law. ESADE Business School is consistently recognised as one of the world’s leading business schools: globally ranked no. 19 business school, (Financial Times, January 2010); international ranked no. 8 School in corporate social responsibility (Aspen Institute, October 2009); globally ranked no. 6 non-US school (Business Week, October 2008); globally ranked no. 3 Customized programmes in Executive Education (Financial Times, May 2010); globally ranked no. 4 Customized programs in Executive Education (Business Week, November 2009); globally ranked no. 20 business school (The Economist, September 2010). Moreover, in its commitment to excellence, ESADE is making consistent efforts to further internationalize its faculty and boost research activity.

The salary for this position will be competitive. On top of the gross salary, assistance will be given towards the cost of relocation. Speaking Spanish is not a requirement. For non Spanish-speaking candidates support in learning Spanish will be provided by the ESADE Language School.

---

1 ESADE Business School is an affirmative action / equal opportunity employer.
Informal enquiries, which will be treated in strict confidence, can be addressed to Fernando Ballabriga, Director of the Economics Department of ESADE at fernando.ballabriga@esade.edu.

The application package includes:
- Motivation letter and Curriculum vitae
- A description of your research agenda
- Materials documenting your teaching experience
- Two recent working papers – indicate which is the job market paper (at assistant professor level)
- A list of recent publications (at associate professor level)
- Three letters of reference (at assistant professor level)

This information should be sent to Silvia Espin, Manager for faculty development, by e-mail at facultypositions@esade.edu. Please state in the subject of the email REF- Economics.

The committee will be reviewing applications until December 31, 2010. Materials submitted as part of an application cannot be returned.