Description

Course contribution to program

This course is designed to give participants an introduction to the complex world of strategic alliances seen as an integrated process rather than watertight compartments of finance, business policy and human resources. By the end of the course, participants should have grasped the complexity of such operations and be well aware of the risks they entail: more than 50% of operations generate no profit for shareholders. They should also have learnt how to increase the success factor of the operations they take part in.

Short description

At the end of the course, students should:

- 1
be familiar with the mergers and acquisitions and should be able to analyze, plan and implement M&A strategies and tactics
understand and apply some major M&A concepts, such as company valuation, synergy calculations, negotiation and deal closing, post-acquisition , integration, etc.
- 3
be able to analyze an M&A operation, perceive the potential dangers and be able to reduce the rate of failure in such operations.
