Course Goals

The aim of the course is to improve written and oral communication skills.

Students successfully completing this course should be able to apply their spoken and written language skills in an academic and work environment. They will be able to:

- Select, synthesise and reference appropriate sources using the APA 7th edition referencing system
- Effectively plan and write a variety of texts relevant to the industry
- Form and develop arguments
- Communicate effectively in interactive situations relevant to the industry
- Speak in public effectively

Previous knowledge

Excellent oral and written skills in general English are expected. Students should be able to employ study and communication skills from English for Global Governance 2.

Prerequisites

Students will have passed English for Global Governance 2.

Teaching methodology

Classes are highly participative and require students to take an active part in a variety of interactive and public speaking tasks.

Students will write regularly during the course, in a style appropriate for academia and the workplace, about current topics relevant to their degree.
