Course Goals

1. Be familiar with the concepts of national interests and foreign policy, and the processes of foreign policy decision-making.
2. Understand the main strategies available to foreign policy practitioners.
3. Use basic tools and frameworks to brief foreign policy decision makers.

Description

Short description

The aim of this course is to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the main strategies utilized by contemporary foreign policy practitioners. Through the analysis of recent cases, students will critically evaluate the strengths and limitations of various policy instruments across multiple domains, including traditional diplomacy, economic measures, military force, and public diplomacy. Engaging in role-playing scenarios, students will be challenged to develop strategic policy responses to complex foreign affairs crises.
