Course Goals

Course objectives include:

- developing an understanding of different approaches to interviews

- learning storytelling methods to aid communication

- building communicative confidence and oral fluency

- improving spoken accuracy through corrective feedback

Previous knowledge

No specific previous knowledge required.

Prerequisits

No specific prerequisites beyond a level of English expected of students at this stage in their degree.

Teaching methodology

Classes are conducted in English and students are required to communicate in English with both the teacher and fellow classmates. The approach is interactive and demands full participation and commitment on the part of the individual student and of the group.

Description

Course contribution to program

COURSE CONTRIBUTION TO PROGRAM
This course will provide students with specific and practical communicative skills for interview situations (e.g. for internships, future education and employment), as well as general linguistic competencies, transferable to other courses which require communication in English.
